

UNIL | Université de Lausanne

The Faculty of Business and Economics (HEC) and the Faculty of Law, Criminal Justice and Public Administration of the University of Lausanne invite applications for a position as:

Full Professor or Associate Professor in Tax Policy at 100%

Starting date: August 1, 2018

The successful candidate will be required to teach various courses dealing with national and/or international tax law and policy, EU tax law and fiscal federalism. A significant research and teaching interest in international tax policy is required.

The new professor will be a member of the Tax Policy Center of the University of Lausanne, will be required to contribute to its various research projects and will also be involved in the management of its Master of Advanced Studies in International Taxation and Executive Program in Transfer Pricing. The selected candidate will also bear the general administrative duties normally allocated to professors.

The teaching schedule shall be defined in agreement with the new professor according to the needs of the Faculties, in light of the courses currently taught and the research interests of the selected candidate. It is however contemplated that the teaching schedule of the selected candidate shall include some or all of the following courses:

- International fiscal policy (master level)
- Digitalisation and taxation (master level)
- European tax law and fiscal federalism (master level)
- Corporate tax governance and transparency (master level)
- International taxation (master level)
- Taxation of multinational enterprises and transfer pricing policy (master level)
- Taxation of the financial sector (master level)

In addition, the new candidate will also be expected to teach courses relating to tax treaties and transfer pricing policy in the Master of Advanced Studies in International Taxation and Executive Program in Transfer Pricing

A PhD in law or in economics as well as an experience in academic research and teaching are required

Applications must be submitted online through the following website (www.hec.unil.ch/candidatures/offres) by February 12th, 2018 (11:59 pm local time - Swiss).

Additional information about the content of the position may be obtained from Professor Robert Danon, Full Professor of Tax Law at HEC and the FDCA, University of Lausanne, Robert.Danon@unil.ch

UNIL is committed to promoting gender equality and strongly encourages applications from female candidates.