Master of Science in Behaviour, Evolution and Conservation
Examination programme 2020-2021

MODULE 1
Theoretical part

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Compulsory courses</th>
<th>Coefficients</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Data Analysis</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Introduction into Scientific Writing</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Molecular Methods in Ecology and Evolution</td>
<td>5</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Optional courses (choice of n courses among all proposed)
- Optional course 1
- Optional course 2
- Optional course n

Final mark: Average weighted by coefficients of the grades for compulsory and optional courses (coefficients correspond to ECTS credits)

MODULE 2
Practical part: First Step Project

Final mark: Arithmetic average of the grades for the practical assessments

Success conditions for modules 1 and 2
- Module 1: final mark ≥ 4,0 and no more than one grade under 4,0 in the compulsory and optional courses and
- Module 2: final mark ≥ 4,0 and no more than one grade under 4,0

MODULE 3

Optional courses (choice of n courses among all proposed)
- Optional course 1
- Optional course 2
- Optional course n

Optional courses (evaluation by credit): each course is evaluated separately and credits are obtained if the final mark is ≥ 4,0

Success conditions for module 3
To obtain at least 15 ECTS credits

MODULE 4

Master Thesis
- Written report / oral defence / practical research work

Success conditions for module 4
Arithmetic average of the three grades on the Master Thesis Project ≥ 4,0

According to the "Règlement d'études de la Maîtrise universitaire ès Sciences en comportement, évolution et conservation adopté par la Direction de l'UNIL le 15 mai 2017".